

Chimpanzee Sanctuary Northwest Volunteer Application

CSNW provides lifetime quality care for formerly abused or exploited chimpanzees, while advocating for great apes through education and collaboration. We envision a future in which primates are no longer owned as pets or exploited for entertainment and biomedical research, and a world where free-living non-human primate populations thrive.

The sanctuary is located on a 26 acre farm in Central Washington, between Cle Elum and Ellensburg, approximately 80 miles east of Seattle.

Please complete this application and return it to: P.O. Box 952, Cle Elum, WA, 98922 or email: volunteer@chimpsanctuarynw.org
